Exchange & Broker's Office,
Georgetown, District of Columbia.
ROMULUS RIGGS.
AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

I expect she can be found in Georgetown or Alexandria, where she has many acquaintances. I will give the above reward if brought home, or lodged in jail so that I get her again.

Baltimore Hospital,
24th August, 1848.

THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchell, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappi, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TRACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treacy has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a scaton put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again; 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

Stop the Swindler.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.—He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair; he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Coburn, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank; and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany. Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him.
BOLIVIA LAWS.

IN EDITOR.

This forenoon a good natured friend told me significantly, that the writer under the signature of H. had sometime past received, what he called, a dressing.

Not having had the opportunity lately of seeing your Gazette, I referred to the file, prepared to read and to receive an elegant, satirical and classical castigation.

What was my astonishment, when in place of perceiving on the arena the sword of the accomplished gladiator, I beheld a tomahawk wielded by one Lucius.

This attack places me in a new situation; for although I occasionally have amused myself in writing paragraphs, I declare, upon my honor, that I never in my life entered into a newspaper controversy; for I despise such waste of time—yet Lucius shall not escape the retort courteous.

He ushers himself into notice under the character introductory of an unlettered man. Yet, although under this affectation of humility, did he anticipate that he would be taken on his assertion, (to compare an atom with an atlas) he would feel equally disappointed as Julius Caesar did at the Lupercal.

He places me (under my own classification of writers) as one who wishes to "get quit of a few ideas," and in the same sentence this pedagogue talks of my lucubrations.

Why he is scarcely even a scholiast, or he would better understand the word he ventures to use. Does a person who writes to get "quit of ideas"—does such a person, I ask, lucubrate?

Tell Lucius, when he leaves the school-room, to step into a blacksmith's shop and remark the scintillations that proceed from the stroke of the hammer on the first beat; and then observe the welding on the anvil which follows, and he may possibly comprehend the distinction.

He accuses me of using an unusual and inelegant inversion of language. Here again we perceive the anvil. But I boldly pronounce that the expression he quotes, squares with the strictest rules of syntax; although not tamed down to pedagogue correctness.

And I equally deny the position that there is no distinction between belles lettres and poetry. If Lucius understands the French language, let him analyse the expression—he will find it means polite literature: such as Blair's Lectures, Burke on the Sublime, Goldsmith's Essays, Essays on the Principles of Translation, and such works. That is now the received meaning of the expression, although a scoliast may say otherwise.

Who would call, let me ask, the poem of "Pethox the Great," by Swift, or that of "Tam O'Chanter," by Burns, belles lettres publications; although they be unrivalled in their different styles?

To say that I contain science and metaphysics, is a most wilful misapprehension of Lucius.

Had he ever heard Doctor Blair from the pulpit, he would have been better able to have judged of his moral discourses, and of the effect given to them by his manner and eloquence. As to the evangelical earnestness of the almost deified Massillon, (this is truly bending the knee to Baal) the amount is, that he was a court preacher; and the cant, rather the caution word of the day, evangelical, was used only when speaking of the evangelists.

I presume, however, if Lucius reads many French sermons, that when he wrote he had some dreaming recollection of the famous Bardalou—who held that gift so eminently possessed by a hitfield, of shaking every nerve of his audience.

For instance, when attempting to figure to his congregation, ETERNITY,—in the fervor of his imagination he exemplified it by a mighty pendulum, which possessed eternal motion, and, suspended over the heads of the damned in hell, vibrated for ever;—and he pictured a siner placed at each end of the vibration of the pendulum—the one exclaiming, in doleful agony, "aujourd'hui," the other responding, in equal misery, "jamais." This is one of the boldest figures ever used from the pulpit, and sets at naught the lakes of liquid lava poured out by the evangelical preachers of our day.—What a contradiction in terms!

I admire wit, although the victim; but the miserable attempts made by Lucius are more painful to the fibre than the languid feebleness which chills his lines.

It is not, therefore, in the least surprising that such a person should feel no gratification in living in the present Augustan age of England. He is a man, not a genius, and I envy him not his plume.

He vouchsafes to tell us that Milton's contemporaries "did not feel quite as much pleasure in the perusal of his great epic as the fastidious moderns even." Heaven! that a man who penned such a sentence, should dare to take the name of Milton in vain! and that he should presume to prate about inversion of language! But Milton's high wrought beauties remained neglected until they were brought forward by Addison's admirable critique on the Spectator. Yet, now it is a shelf book.

Before I finish this courteous retort to Lucius, his expression that my praise of the grating sounds of the Scotch vernacular is an instance of "unaccountable dulness," must meet due reprehension. Although my real belief is that he used the word dulness, to foist in, head and shoulders, a brace of poetical quotations, determined to show by his finale, that he was not the illiterate, I mean "unlettered man," he, with so much affected meekness, ushered himself into your columns.

Why, what society does this Lucius keep, to use language so little urbane? Can he be so totally unacquainted with the most admired writers in that language or vernacular? Has he never heard of the famous poem of Christ's Kirk on the Green by James the first of Scotland, of Allen Ramsay's Gentle Shepherd, of the immortal Burns so highly eulogized by Byron, of Ferguson, of McNeil, and of many others who wrote in that language?

Let him make the "Amende honorable," and confess that, unhappily he is shut out, by incapacity or a want of true taste, from enjoying the fine touches of feeling and of nature which abound in those poets, and in the late Scotch novels; and that he cannot comprehend the humor of such characters as Dinmont, Hobbie Elliot, Elsie, Cuddie and others, to be found in these novels. To perceive this "unlettered man," talk of the grating sound of a language!! Why he is a very Napoleon in temper as to language; to gratify his gentle ear, every people that use gutturals must be swept off, and the Celtic, Teutonic, and Slavonic languages for ever to be annihilated.

Farewell for ever "Lucius"; although I know not, nor probably do you yourself know, whether your Latin signature be a pronomen, an agnomen, or a cognomen.

God preserve you from grating gutturals, my "unlettered man."

N. B. Since handing you the foregoing for the type, I thought of looking over the attack of this Lucius (can he belong to the family of Titus Andronicus?); on H. with more attention. I must beg your pardon and that of your grammatical readers, for calling him even a pedagogue. For what pedant could have been so far ignorant, as to use such a solecism in grammar, as that which follows—"and while I am obliged to put you down in the class who you say, &c."

When a person does not know the difference, in grammar, between who and which, it is of little consequence to enquire what he is. The best way is to take him at his own word,—"an "unlettered man."

Private letters from Alabama state, that a court was at that time sitting (17th September) at Fort Claiborne, in Monroe Cy. a spot which, until the late Indian war, was scarcely known to white people, except the few who lived among the Indians. It is on the banks of the Alabama, about 50 miles above Fort Stoddard. Two years ago there was but a single cabin on the spot where the town now stands, and it is computed that the town now contains twenty seven hundred inhabitants. Although the whole of the land still belongs to the Indian nation, there are a Court-house and Jail, as well as a variety of private buildings erected for the purpose of public justice and of domestic comfort—and, it is with regret it is stated, that the jail was crowded with criminals, some of whose cases were of a highly interesting nature. An Indian, for one, had been indicted for the murder of a white man, and six or eight white men had been indicted for having (as the reader may remember to have seen it stated some time ago) murdering several Indian prisoners, who were shot and killed when bound, and passing under the protection of a guard from Fort Claiborne to Fort Montgomery. This is a crime if established, calling for all the energy of the law. A disposition is said to prevail among the people, favorable to the repression of such outrages, and for the prosecution of every species of offence against the laws and against the public peace. These are objects which we had rather see effected by civil than by military law.

A letter received in this city from a gentleman living at Alexandria, at the falls of Red River, Louisiana, under date of 10th September, gives a flattering view of the rapidly improving state of that country—"Lands and town lots," the writer says, "have risen beyond all expectation. We have now at Alexandria twenty mercantile establishments, whose imports may be estimated at from 250 to 300,000 dollars per annum. The crops of this parish will this year amount to about four hundred thousand dollars, at the present price of cotton—they are now very promising, and our parish generally enjoying unusual prosperity. Land, which was bought in 1806 at fifty cents per acre, has recently been sold in a tract of 800 acres, at twenty eight dollars per acre."

[Ibid.

RALPH NEALE is elected to congress, in opposition to Nicholas Stonestreet and H. G. S. Key, in the District of Maryland, (Charles and St. Mary's) now represented by Gen. Stewart. Mr. Neale is a Federalist, as were all the candidates, but received the votes of the Republicans of that district generally. [Ibid.

A LARGE UNITARIAN CHURCH has been recently erected in the city of Baltimore. Its beauty is said to be exceeded by that of no public building in the United States.—The pulpit is thus described—"It is in imitation of the ancient Rostrum and rests upon a double square base, the first of which is of verd antique, and the second of Italian marble. The latter is decorated on its front with a Bronze Ornament, imitated from the Antique. The body of the pulpit which is semi-circular, is made of Bird's eye Marble. It is ascended by eight steps on each side, enclosed by a balustrade of an imposing style, the base of which is of the same verd antique marble. On the landing places on each side are to be armed chairs in the Grecian Style, ornamented with Bronze, for the accommodation of visiting Ministers. The Organ is represented as being very superb, resembling in its construction, a colonial Antique Lyre, the large pipes imitating the strings—two Egyptian columns inclose the whole, the pipes forming their shafts.

From the Richmond Compiler, Oct. 9.

We lament to state that a black man died on Thursday morning last, with some of the symptoms of Hydrophobia. Precisely three months from that time, this unfortunate Negro had been bit by a little puppy, who was not previously suspected of being mad, but afterwards exhibited some symptoms of the distemper. The puppy had bit a little child; and in the act of driving him off, he seized the negro by the left arm, and bit him pretty severely. Being shaken off from that arm, he seized the other, which he also bit, though in an inconsiderable degree. The same puppy likewise attacked and bit another negro man; suspicion began to be excited, and the dog was killed.

The negro, who is just dead, and the little boy, (the son of a respectable family in this city,) were immediately sent over to the Mad Dog Stone, which is deposited at Tappanhook (50 miles off) for use, and whose virtues have been lately contested with considerable force, in consequence of the fatal termination of two cases in this city, each of which had the assistance of another stone belonging to one of our citizens.

It is stated, as one of the criteria of the action of the stone, that it uniformly adheres to the part which contains any virus. If it drops off, the part is pronounced unaffected by the virus, and the patient has been generally considered as out of danger.

In the case of this old man, the stone was first applied to the left arm, (the first one bit) and adhered with considerable tenacity. After extracting the poison from that arm, (as it was supposed by the operator,) it was applied to the wound on the right arm, which had been more slightly bit; but it fell off without adhering at all, or very slightly.—The operator, we believe, entertained sanguine hopes that the danger was over.

The old man made no serious complaints until Monday night—when he was seized with a pain in his right arm, which he described as extending over half the right side of his face. Medical aid was called on, but it was in vain.—The man grew worse and worse—exhibited until the evening before his death, a horror at the drinking or sight of fluids—indeed all the muscles of the chest and that of the diaphragm seemed thrown into convulsion, whenever the muscles of the throat connected with swallowing were thrown into action, not only as in drinking or strongly thinking of drinking fluids, but also in having his head thrown back for the purpose of inspecting his tongue—a shuddering, and the convulsive gasp of breathing, seemed to come over him at these moments—indeed an extraordinary irritability appeared to attack all the muscles of his arms, neck, and chest—he would occasionally swing his arm up and down, and was seen to beat his head against the wall. Such, we understand, were some of the symptoms observed; tho' in such an interesting question of medical science, it is earnestly hoped the world will be favored with a more particular and accurate account of this case from the hands of the attending physician.—We do not take upon ourselves to pronounce with certainty that this was a case of the Hydrophobia—it may have been complicated with other affections.—We leave that question to the intelligent gentlemen, who saw the case, and understand the disease of Hydrophobia.

It is remarkable, that on the morning of his death, the negro sipped and drank water with much greater ease than had marked the earlier periods of the attack.

By Last Evening's Mail.

New-York, October 12.
LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival on Saturday evening, of the regular packet ship Courier, Captain Bowne, in 33 days from Liverpool, the editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received London papers to the 31st of Aug. and Lloyd's Lists to the 28th, inclusive.

The U. S. frigate Guerriere arrived at Cowes on the 22d of August, and sailed thence for St. Petersburg on the 24th.

The Queen had not yet removed to Windsor. She had suffered a renewed attack of her disorder, and was very ill at the time of our late dates.

One of our papers contains the following paragraph, in relation to American affairs:—"It is said, that Mr. Gallatin, Ambassador from the Court of France, and Mr. Rush, American Ambassador in this country, have been appointed Plenipotentiaries for the purpose of renewing and extending the commercial treaty already existing between Great Britain and the United States, and held a conference with Lord Castlereagh on Saturday week; at his Lordship's seat, North Cray, Kent, at which the Right Hon. Mr. Robinson and Mr. Goulburn, who, it is added, are the Plenipotentiaries appointed by his Majesty's Government to negotiate with the American Plenipotentiaries, assisted."

The following prices at Liverpool, are from our correspondents' letter of the 1st ult.

Ashes are in good demand, first pot 52 to 63. Barks unsealable, querciron, at 19 to 22s. Cottons not so brisk 10 days previous, but prices are steady, upwards 1½ to 2½ New-Orleans 1s 8d to 2s. Sea Island 3s 7d to 4s. The quantity of barked on hand in Ireland the 1st Aug. was only 8000 hhds. 65 to 68s. Flour goes off in small parcels, sweet at 47s 6d to 48s. sour 38 to 39. Hops are of a heavy sale, English at 12 to 14s. Naval stores are in fair demand, turpentine 16s 6d to 17s. tar 15s 6d to 16s 6d. Rice 51 to 53s. Good new wheat looking up 11s to 11s 9d. Good inquiry for staves, w. o. barrel 11 to 17s; hhd 12 to 23. Tobacco is in good demand, as the stock on hand is small, a further advance is looked for—James river old sound 8 to 8½; Rappahannock leaf 7 to 9; Kentucky leaf 7½ to 8d.

At the London Corn market, August 24, English new wheat sold at an advance of from 2 to 4s a quarter.

SALES AT AUCTION. THIS DAY.
Lexington at Public Sale.
On THURSDAY, October 15, If fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public sale, on the premises, Lexington.
THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being the half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale. About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and black oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The other improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, ice-house; a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable Shad & Herring Fisheries:
however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams above mentioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters. When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac. It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.
The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.
August 31 WILLIAM MASON.
ON Thursday, the 15th day of October, will be sold, on the premises, to the highest bidder, for cash, a number of Fine and fat Cattle;
consisting of unbroken steers, from 2 to 4 years old; cows, calves and heifers; a number of most excellent sheep, now suitable for mutton; also, a large quantity of hogs of different sizes. WM. MASON.

The first day's race, 4 miles and repeat; the second day's race, 2 miles and repeat; the third day's race, 1 mile and repeat—weights agreeable to the Washington jockey club races, except the saddle horses, and they may carry a feather. Sept. 18 1270

50 Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED on Saturday morning, the 15th inst. negro George, or George Griffin, the property of Miss McCall, by trade a nailer, and understands some part of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of obtaining himself as a free man, and will not attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—as a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.

A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home. Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring, or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law. JAMES SANDERSON, August 17

PROPOSALS,
By Gideon Fairman, John Binn and Charles S. Parker,
TO PUBLISH
A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address,
To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valor in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, coveted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the

Aromatic Snuff,

For Catarrh & Headache.

THIS Snuff, as celebrated for its agreeable fragrance, as for its efficacy in the cure of recent catarrh and slow nervous headache, is used and approved by the present professor of chemistry in the university of Cambridge, Mass. and by some of the most respectable gentlemen of the faculty in the United States.—It is also particularly recommended by Dr. Waterhouse, late professor of the theory and practice of physic, in the above seminary—whose certificate accompanies each bottle.—Sold by JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

Auction & Commission Store.

NATHL. P. BIXBY & CO. respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and commodious store formerly occupied by the late Mr. Thomas Robinson, nearly opposite the Union Bank, Bridge-st. where they will transact all kinds of business in the Auction and Commission line; and as they are determined to give their exclusive attention to that business alone, those gentlemen who are disposed to employ them, have the best guarantee that they will be fairly dealt by. They flatter themselves that a punctual, diligent, and correct attention, together with their general knowledge of business, will secure to them at least an equal share of public patronage. Their intention is to avoid, as much as possible, retailing goods at auction. They are now prepared to receive goods of every description, to sell at public or private sale, and will attend to sales of property at any place within the town.

Gone to the Southward or Westward.

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with India ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Bassett. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.
HANNAH DETCHER.

Valuable Property for Sale.
THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—It would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potobick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shade and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of fine fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Potobick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

Valuable Land for Sale.

HAVING note land in the tract on which I reside that I can farm to advantage, I will expose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres: each lot has seventy acres in wood,—of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rye and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Accotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price can be had for grain.—It is as fertile as any land in the county, and as susceptible of improvement, by clover and plaster, as any I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill. The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock, on the premises.

Valuable Property for Sale.

I WILL sell my property on King, West and Cameron streets, being one acre, or half a square, in fee simple, fronting one hundred and twenty three feet six inches on King street, the same on Cameron street, and three hundred and fifty feet and two inches on West street. There are erected on said premises, an excellent two story brick dwelling house on West street, with smoke house, stable, carriage house, and every convenience suitable for the accommodation of a respectable family. A large two story brick warehouse, corner of King and West streets, now in the occupation of Thomas Swann Jr. and another brick warehouse, with dwelling attached, fronting on King street, occupied by George Kincaid. These warehouses are built of the best materials, not surpassed by any in town.—Two brick dwelling houses, fronting on King street, with sufficient room for the erection of other buildings—and a large lot on West and Cameron streets, sufficiently large for the erection of fifteen respectable tenements.

This is a most desirable property for any man of fortune who wishes to improve it, or receive a good interest for his money, and offers advantages equal if not superior to any situation in the town of Alexandria. Likewise, two frame dwelling houses, fronting on King street, adjoining the warehouse occupied by George Kincaid. This property is subject to a small ground rent of thirty dollars and forty one cents per annum.

Also, a lot of ground, in fee simple, containing ten and three quarter acres, two miles from town, on the old Leesburg road, near the property of Wm. Robinson, Esq. This lot is beautifully situated, having a fine view of Alexandria and of the Potomac—is well taken with clover, and is capable of the highest improvement.
The above property will be sold together, or in part, and a liberal credit given to suit purchasers.
